Meet the Founder
Aquanetta Betts

Dear Pastor and Church Leader,

This letter is written to you from a place of deep personal connection—one rooted in Sunday mornings, First Sunday in August homecomings, Bible Study, Revival, Vacation Bible School, Gospel Choirs, and a lifetime of witnessing the transformative power of faithful giving in churches just like yours.

Growing up, the church was the heartbeat of my family's life and community. I watched as small rural churches, thriving mid-sized congregations, and dynamic urban ministries did remarkable Kingdom work with the resources their members entrusted to them (mostly tithes and offerings). But I also watched many of these same churches operate in crisis mode—struggling to sustain their vision because the pathways for legacy giving weren't clear or accessible.

This is what drives me today. After more than a decade as an estate planning attorney, and years serving as a director of planned giving for both a large public research university and a global Christian humanitarian organization, I've learned something vital: churches that thrive are churches that plan. They aren't merely surviving; they are sustaining and expanding their Kingdom impact for generations.

Your community needs the church. And your members are ready to ensure that the church is here, thriving and serving, for generations to come.

Yours in Christ,

Aquanetta Betts
